

- What variables influence y?
- In what way? Linear/nonlinear relationship?
- How much/effect sizes?
- How consistent eg. What variation can be expected?
- Background noise: Given all other factors, how much additional 'unexplained' variation can be expected?

